

Lindsey M. Gibson

lmgibson0601@gmail.com • 919-600-1692

Education

University of Aberdeen

Aberdeen, UK

Doctor of Philosophy, Divinity

Expected May 2028

Dissertation: "Let Us Keep the Feast: Eucharistic Belonging, Disability, and Anglican Ressourcement of the Book of Common Prayer"

Advisor: Dr. Brian Brock

Duke Divinity School

Durham, North Carolina

Master of Theology, Patristics

May 2018

Thesis: "Gregory of Nyssa's Christological Hope for Humanity"

Advisors: Dr. Warren Smith, Dr. Warren Kinghorn

Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary

Charlotte, North Carolina

Master of Arts in Christian Thought, Patristics

May 2016

Advisor: Dr. Donald Fairbairn

Campbell University

Buies Creek, North Carolina

Bachelor of Arts in Religious Studies

May 2013

Advisor: Dr. Adam English

Publications

Gibson, Lindsey M. Review of Dignity of Dependence, by Leah Libresco Sargeant. Covenant Quarterly (March 2026).

Presentations

"The Eucharist as Medicine: Intellectual Disability and Reimagining Healing as Wholeness."

Practice & Presence: A Gathering for Christians in Health Care,

Duke University, Durham, NC

September 11–12, 2026. Forthcoming.

“Christ Beside Us at the Table: An Anglican Eucharistic Account of Belonging and Intellectual Disability,”

Society for the Study of Christian Ethics PGR Conference,
Christ Church, University of Oxford, Oxford, UK, May 6, 2026.

“Reclaiming Intelligence: AI, Disability, and the Embodied Eucharist,”

Baylor Symposium on Faith and Culture: Technology and the Human Person in the Age of AI, Baylor University, Waco, TX, February 26–28, 2026.

“A Seat at the Table: Aquinas, Calvin, and UDL for Eucharistic Belonging,”

Institute for Theology and Disability,
Denver, CO, June 17, 2025.

Leadership & Service

Access Leadership Network (Provincial, ACNA)

Resource Team Member, July 2025 – Present

All Saints Church, Open Arms Disability Ministry

Founder and Director, Durham, NC, September 2025 – Present

L’Arche North Carolina

Community Volunteer, Durham, NC, January 2026 – Present

Skills & Interests

Languages:

English: Native

Koine Greek: Advanced reading and writing proficiency

Latin: Intermediate reading and writing proficiency

French: Foundational reading proficiency

Interests: Liturgical theology; disability advocacy and inclusion; Anglican prayer traditions; medieval and patristic theology